Any relief program under any president would be overwhelmed by this. (and BTW, I can't stand Bush)

New Orleans is a geographical and logistical nightmare in any scenario. Three main highways access it, two are down.

Large population of poor folks, most of who happen to be black, making it all too easy for commentators to play the race card.

Lots of addicts who didn't leave and decided to play "Escape From New York."

Hell, where's Snake Pliskin when we need him?

Anyway, none of this is constructive....

....as far as bein' "fugly," as Dabney Coleman says in Modern Problems, "I'm a damn good lookin' man!" and I have probably
